CARIBBEAN STUDIES INVITES YOU TO

MIRADAS DESDE LA PERIFERIA/
VIEWS FROM THE PERIPHERY:
IMMIGRANTS EXPERIENCES FROM THE
PERSPECTIVES OF INDIGENOUS WOMEN IN CHIAPAS

Dr. Carlos Buitrago Ortiz
Distinguished Professor
Department of Sociology and Anthropology
University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras

Using ethnography techniques and interviews, Professor Buitrago will explore the impact of internal immigration from the Chiapas Highlands to the urban lowlands of San Cristobal de Las Casas on indigenous women. This is contrasted to previous migratory movements such as the Puerto Rican internal migration of the 1940s.
